How to Pay & Member Portal

We have made paying your monthly premium as simple and convenient as possible. Choose any of the payment methods below. Whichever method you use, please always quote your Infinity Legal SA membership number so that your payment can be allocated without delay. If you have any difficulty paying, contact our Member Care team on 0861 4 LEGAL (0861 453 425) or email legal@infinitylegal.co.za and we will assist you.

Member Portal

The Infinity Legal SA Member Portal at portal.infinitylegal.co.za is the fastest and most secure way to manage your membership. From the portal you can pay your monthly premium by card or instant EFT, download your membership card, view your Schedule of Insurance, retrieve a copy of this Membership Agreement, log a new legal matter, track the status of an existing matter, and update your personal details. The portal is mobile friendly and is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Debit Order

A debit order is the recommended way to keep your membership Paid-Up. On the date you choose, your monthly premium is collected directly from your nominated bank account. To set up or amend a debit order, log in to the Member Portal or call 0861 4 LEGAL at least 30 days before your next collection date. We do not charge debit order collection fees, but your own bank may levy a fee for failed deductions; such fees remain your responsibility.

Stop Order

A stop order is an instruction given by you to your employer to deduct your premium directly from your salary and pay it to us. This facility is most commonly available to employees of government departments, state-owned entities and certain large employers. To arrange a stop order, contact our Member Care team and we will provide you with the necessary mandate form for your employer.

Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT)

You may pay your premium by EFT directly into the Infinity Legal SA bank account. Use your membership number as the payment reference. Our banking details appear on your membership card, your Schedule of Insurance and the Member Portal. Please allow two business days for an EFT to reflect before it shows as Paid-Up on your membership record.

Retail Outlets

You can pay your monthly premium in cash at any EasyPay-enabled retail outlet across South Africa. Present your membership card or quote your EasyPay number (found on the back of your card) to the cashier, and always ask for a receipt. EasyPay payments usually reflect on your membership within 24 hours. Participating retailers include:

- Pep and Pep Cell
- Shoprite and Checkers
- Pick n Pay

- Spar
- Boxer Superstores
- Lewis, Joshua Doore and Russells

Infinity Legal SA Branches

To confirm whether your nearest branch accepts in-branch payments, call 0861 4 LEGAL or visit www.infinitylegal.co.za/branches.

NOTE:

Whichever payment method you choose, your membership only becomes Paid-Up once the funds have reflected in our bank account. To avoid a break in cover, please pay your premium on or before the 1st day of every month.

SECTION 1

Interpretation and Definitions

This Membership Agreement (the "Agreement") is the binding contract between you, the Member, and Infinity Legal SA. It sets out the benefits, terms, conditions and exclusions that apply to your personal legal expenses cover. The headings, diagrams, notes, examples and any addendums you have selected all form part of this Agreement and must be read together. The singular includes the plural and vice versa, and the meaning of certain words is explained where they are used in the text.

- a Membership means being an insured person under this insurance policy (this Agreement) in consideration of the monthly premium in force from time to time. The monthly premium in force at the time you join will be shown in your Schedule of Insurance. You will be advised of subsequent increases as set out in Section 13.
- b We, Us and Our means the insurer, LegalGuard Insurance Southern Africa Limited (Reg. No. 2010/045678/06, FSP 48012), and Infinity Legal SA (Pty) Ltd (Reg. No. 2024/123456/07, FSP 53214), which administers the Agreement as a non-mandated intermediary.
- c Main Member is the natural person whose name appears as the main insured on the application form for Membership.
- d You, Your and Member means the Main Member and the following additional persons (proof of relationship may be requested): the nominated Spouse; the Main Member's biological or legally adopted children under 18 years of age; and the Main Member's biological or legally adopted children aged 18 up to 21 who are in full-time study at a recognised institution in the Republic of South Africa (RSA) and who remain financially dependent on the Main Member or nominated Spouse. Children aged 21 and older do not qualify for Cover, save as may be provided in the Extended Family Protection Addendum.
- e Spouse (including a Life Partner) means a person who, at the time the Relevant Events occurred, was married to, or living with, the Main Member as if married by civil rights or customary law, for at least the Minimum Period as Life Partner shown in your Schedule of Insurance, and who is still married to, or living with, the Main Member when a Benefit is claimed.
- f Extender Member is any Family Member added in terms of the Extended Family Protection Addendum, excluding any person who does not qualify in terms of the definition of "You" above.
- g Membership is confirmed when We issue your Schedule of Insurance. The Agreement between You and Us has a reference number shown in your Schedule of Insurance. Please confirm that it matches the reference number printed on this document (ILS PERSONAL/2025/06/01).
- h Paid-Up means that every monthly premium has been paid in full from the date of the Relevant Event or events to the date the matter is Reported to Us, with no break in your Membership. Part-payment does not constitute being Paid-Up.
- i Relevant Event means the event (shown in bold capital letters in Section 4) that triggers a potential claim under an Insured Matter. The Relevant Event must occur in the RSA after the Waiting Period and while your Membership is Paid-Up.

- j Waiting Period means the period after Membership is confirmed during which Insurance Cover is not available. The Waiting Period is shown in your Schedule of Insurance.
- k Covered (or Insurance Cover or simply Cover) means that an Insured Matter qualifies for the payment of legal expenses under Section 2(2) of this Agreement.
- l Insured Matter means a matter listed in Section 4 that, provided all conditions are met, potentially qualifies for Cover.
- m Reported means that We have received your completed Official Claim Form (OCF), which forms part of this Agreement.
- n Case means all Court, Tribunal or Arbitration proceedings based on the same Relevant Events.
- o Lawyer means a legal practitioner practising in the RSA and registered with the Legal Practice Council. Throughout this Agreement the words "Lawyer" and "legal advisor" are used interchangeably and refer to the same regulated professional.
- p Legal Advisor means a legal practitioner practising in the RSA and registered with the Legal Practice Council of South Africa in terms of the Legal Practice Act 28 of 2014. The words "legal advisor" and "lawyer" are used interchangeably in this Agreement and refer to the same regulated profession. Infinity Legal SA uses the term "legal advisor" throughout this document.
- q Schedule of Insurance means the document We issue to you that records your personal details, premium, Waiting Period, Maximum Limits, First Amount Payable and other key parameters.

NOTE:

The headings, notes, examples, diagrams and addendums in this Agreement are all part of the contract. If a defined term is used with a capital letter, it has the meaning given to it in this Section 1 or where it is first defined in the text.

SECTION 2

Membership Benefits

While your Membership is Paid-Up, you are entitled, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, to Our Services. Our Services consist of two complementary components: Legal Advisory Services (delivered by Our legally trained counsellors) and Legal Expenses Insurance (the payment of your legal expenses when a matter qualifies for Cover). Unless otherwise indicated, both components apply to any Addendums you have selected.

1. Legal Advisory Services

Legal Advisory Services are dispute prevention services that We provide through Our legally trained counsellors. The aim is to give Us flexibility to help you as much as We can, and to reduce the need for Court proceedings wherever possible. Because these services are provided at no additional cost to you, We provide them at Our discretion. We may set limits at any time, and We have no obligation to provide them in any particular matter.

You agree that the provision of Legal Advisory Services to you does not, on its own, mean that a matter qualifies for Insurance Cover, nor that you have rights in respect of that matter as if it were an Insured Matter.

NOTE:

Not many people enjoy disputes or spending time in a Court. It is generally known that We will pay a Paid-Up Member's legal advisor to take a Covered matter to Court if a dispute cannot be prevented by Our legal counsellors. Many potential disputes and Court cases are avoided as a result of that.

Legal Advisory Services are available for the following categories of matters:

- An Insured Matter that qualifies for Cover. Even when an Insured Matter is Covered, We do not pay the legal costs of your legal advisor to try to resolve the issue before starting a Case. Unless We agree otherwise, you will be responsible for such costs. If you wish to avoid that, Our Legal Advisory Services will try to resolve the issue at no cost to you. If We are unable to resolve the matter, you may consult a legal advisor of your choice.
- An Insured Matter that does not qualify for Cover. This is mainly when the conditions in this Agreement are not met, such as a Relevant Event happening before the end of the Waiting Period.
- Matters outside the scope of this Agreement, which is when a matter is not shown as an Insured Matter in any of the Insurance Cover sections or the Addendums.
- The exclusions in Section 6 and in the Addendums, except those that are specifically excluded from Legal Advisory Services as well, as indicated in Section 6.

2. Legal Expenses Insurance

If We are unable to resolve a matter via Legal Advisory Services and the matter (a) qualifies for Cover as set out in Section 3 and (b) is not excluded as set out in Section 6, then, as long as you remain a Paid-Up Member, We will pay your legal advisor for those legal expenses set out in Section 7, up to the limits in Section 10, to represent you in a Case or criminal charge. We refer to this as "Insurance Cover" or simply "Cover".

"Legal Advisor" is a legal practitioner practising in the RSA and registered with the Legal Practice Council. The words "legal advisor" and "lawyer" are used interchangeably in this Agreement and refer to the same regulated profession. Infinity Legal SA uses the term "legal advisor" throughout this document.

SECTION 3

Covered Matters

Section 4 lists Insured Matters that potentially qualify for Cover, showing the Relevant Event for each. An Insured Matter qualifies for Cover only if all of the conditions set out below are met. Where any one condition is not satisfied, the matter will be treated as not Covered, although Legal Advisory Services may still be available under Section 2(1).

- a The Relevant Events that apply to an Insured Matter all happen in the RSA after the Waiting Period and while your Membership is Paid-Up.
- b Where a dispute is about a series of Relevant Events, the first Relevant Event happens or commences to happen after the Waiting Period.
- c Your legal advisor agrees in writing that your chances of succeeding in a civil or labour Case, or an application for leave to appeal, are better than not succeeding.
- d All the elements of a crime, or all the things the police allege as the reasons for charging you, happen after the Waiting Period. Being arrested after the Waiting Period for a criminal offence alleged to have been committed before the end of the Waiting Period does not qualify for Cover.
- e The matter is Reported to Us while your Membership is Paid-Up or within the Maximum Period to Report After Cancellation shown in your Schedule of Insurance.
- f You have paid the First Amount Payable shown in your Schedule of Insurance. If you use a legal advisor who is not on Our Network, We will deduct the First Amount Payable from any amount due to that legal advisor. If you have already paid the legal advisor, the First Amount Payable will be deducted from any amount due to you. We must pay that legal advisor in terms of your Legal Expenses Insurance claim.
- g The Relevant Event for each Insured Matter is wrongful, unlawful or is another basis for a valid legal claim by you or against you, in your personal, private and individual capacity.
- h If a legal claim by you is based solely on the meaning of a document, law or regulation (that is, the Relevant Events themselves are not in dispute), that document, law or regulation must come into existence after the Waiting Period. This condition does not apply if there is a legal claim against you.
- i If the Main Member suffers an Accidental Death, a Legal Expenses Accidental Death (LEAD) lump sum is payable, subject to the conditions in Section 4.

EXAMPLE:

A finance house obtains a Court order to repossess your car because you are in arrears with instalments. If you do not dispute the arrears, the repossession is likely lawful. If so, there is no basis for a legal defence and the matter is not Covered.

"Accidental Death" means death in the RSA as a result of a sudden, violent and unforeseeable: road traffic or transport-related accident; an accident while performing your duties as an employee; an accident at your Place of Residence or while on holiday or visiting friends; an accident while shopping or visiting places of entertainment or other public places for personal and private purposes; assault or murder; or medical negligence. Death by natural causes and suicide are not accidental.

SECTION 4

Covered Matters and Their Relevant Events

The events shown below in BOLD CAPITAL LETTERS are the Relevant Events that must happen after the Waiting Period in the RSA. The list may not be exhaustive, and We may modify or add further Insured Matters and Relevant Events at Our discretion. If a matter is not listed below, it is not an Insured Matter and does not qualify for Cover.

You are Covered only if the date of purchase is after the Waiting Period and while your Membership is Paid-Up.
- 32 BREACH OF CONTRACT, NEGLIGENCE or OVER-CHARGING by a vehicle rental company.

SECTION 5

The Agreement, Fairness and Cooling-off Period

1. The Agreement

- a This is a monthly Agreement between the Main Member and Us, for which a monthly premium is payable.
- b When you deal with any legal advisor in connection with a claim under this Agreement, that engagement is an agreement between you and that legal advisor, to which We are not a party.
- c You can cancel your Membership at any time without any cancellation fees or penalties. See Section 13(4)(a).
- d We can cancel your Membership for the reasons set out in Section 13(4)(d) and Section 8(5).
- e Unless specifically modified, this Agreement applies to all optional product Addendums.
- f All premiums, maximum limits and the First Amount Payable are inclusive of all taxes and VAT.

2. Fairness

- a An event which happened before or during the Waiting Period does not qualify for Insurance Cover. That is the case even if you were unaware of the event, forgot that it happened, or were aware of it but did not realise that it could lead to a Case.
- b Should We decide that your matter does not qualify for Insurance Cover and you disagree with Our reasons, you may ask for an independent referee to review Our decision. See Section 14.

EXAMPLE:

If your Waiting Period is one month and a Relevant Event occurs on day 20 of your Membership (during the Waiting Period), the matter does not qualify for Cover, even if you only become aware of the event after the Waiting Period has expired.

3. Cooling-off Period

- a If you cancel your Membership during the Waiting Period, We will refund the premiums you have paid only if you have not received any assistance (including Legal Advisory Services) under this Membership Agreement.
- b If you cancel your Membership after the Waiting Period, We will not refund any premiums you have paid, even if you did not receive any benefit, whether Insurance or Legal Advisory Services.
- c If We cancel your Membership during the Waiting Period due to non-payment of premiums, We do not refund any premiums.

NOTE:

Like home insurance, you cannot, for example, claim a refund of premiums if your home did not burn down while you were insured. The premium pays for the availability of Cover during the period of insurance, not for the occurrence of an insured event.

SECTION 6

Exclusions

In addition to any exclusions set out in Section 4, a matter or dispute that arises out of, is based on, or relates to any of the following does not qualify for Insurance Cover under Section 2(2). We may, however, still provide the Legal Advisory Services referred to in Section 2(1), unless we have specifically excluded them as indicated in this Section.

- 6 The legal expenses of further action to force an unwilling or unable "loser" to obey a court order when you win a Case.
- 7 The legal expenses of an appeal or review if you lose a Case, but only if your legal advisor agrees that your chances of succeeding in the appeal or review are better than not succeeding.
- 8 If We have agreed to it, the costs of your opponent in order to settle a Case.
- 9 The Legal Expenses Accidental Death cash payment is for the reporting and winding up of the deceased estate, dealing with debtors (including Workmen's Compensation and the Road Accident Fund if applicable) and creditors (including estate duty), and obtaining expert financial, legal and tax advice. The amount is shown in your Schedule of Insurance.
- 10 We only pay legal expenses for a Case conducted and concluded in a court or tribunal in the RSA in respect of Relevant Events that happened in the RSA. "Conducted and concluded" means that the Case is initiated and finalised in a court in the RSA, which includes execution steps and any recovery associated with a Case.

"Case" means all Court, Tribunal or Arbitration proceedings based on the same Relevant Events.

"Arbitration Proceedings" mean arbitration proceedings in terms of the Arbitration Act 42 of 1965.

SECTION 8Legal Expenses We Do Not Pay

- 1 That are above the limits set out in Section 10.
- 2 That are higher than Our Tariffs.
- 3 For work done by your legal advisor before We have issued a written Confirmation of Cover (unless We agree otherwise in writing).
- 4 That are duplicated because you changed legal advisors without Our written agreement.
- 5 After the following actions or inactions by you which entitle Us to cancel your Membership, We will have no obligation to pay legal expenses not already incurred in a Case: (a) without a reasonable explanation, you fail to respond to Our request or your legal advisor's request for relevant information or instructions regarding a Case; (b) you withhold or give false or misleading information in relation to your Insurance claim or a Case; (c) without a reasonable explanation, you fail to co-operate or turn up for consultations or court appearances.
- 6 For any new matters that you report to Us after the Maximum Period to Report a Claim shown in your Schedule of Insurance, after cancellation of your Membership for any reason. The legal expenses of an appeal or review arising from a Covered matter received outside of the Maximum Period to Report a Claim are excluded from Cover.
- 7 If you are joined with other persons in a Case (a joint or class action), We will pay only a portion of the legal expenses for which you are jointly liable. That portion is the same as the proportion that you are of the total number of persons, but only up to the Maximum Limit.
- 8 If you offer to pay the legal expenses of your opponent to settle a Case, you are personally responsible for payment. We do not pay those legal expenses unless We agree in writing.
- 9 We do not pay legal expenses for negotiation, mediation or Alternative Dispute Resolution efforts or proceedings unless We agree otherwise in writing.
- 10 We do not pay legal costs that are punitive costs awards (for example, costs awards against you by the court that serve as a punishment).
- 11 We do not pay the cost of expert evidence, expert opinions, medical reports, and mediator or arbitrator fees that We have not agreed to in writing beforehand.
- 12 We do not pay your cost and/or your opponent's cost: (a) when you abandon a court case; (b) if the court finds that a legal action by you is vexatious or malicious; or (c) arising from a Contempt of Court case against you.

SECTION 9

Recovery and Restriction of Expenses

- 1 If a court orders your opponent who loses a Case to pay all or some of your legal expenses, then, if the amount that your opponent must pay: (a) is less than the legal expenses We paid, the total amount paid by your opponent must be refunded to Us; (b) is more than the legal expenses We paid, the total legal expenses We paid must be refunded to Us.
- 2 You agree that your legal advisor can refund Us when the money is received from your opponent in terms of the Court Order.
- 3 If your opponent does not pay for any reason, you give Us the right to claim it directly from that opponent in your name.
- 4 We may, at Our discretion, require you at any time before or after payment of a claim to cede to Us any contingent, future or actual right to claim any costs in respect of any proceedings Covered by this Agreement.
- 5 We must be advised immediately if you receive a settlement offer. You may not accept or reject a settlement offer without Our written consent. (a) If you request Our consent to accept an offer, We may agree on condition that all or some of the legal expenses We paid must be recovered from your opponent. (b) If you request Our consent to reject an offer, We will set a limit on the legal expenses We will pay to carry on. Because the dispute is now only about how much more you claim, We determine how much more We will pay to carry on by multiplying the amount or value of how much more you claim by the Claim Value Multiplier shown in your Schedule of Insurance. We will pay up to that amount, provided the Maximum Limit in terms of Section 10 is not exceeded.
- 6 If you are Covered against payment of legal fees under any other insurance policy, Our liability shall be limited to the prorated (rateable) portion of the total legal expenses incurred.

SECTION 10

Maximum Limits We Pay

- 1 All limits are limits per Agreement, irrespective of how many Members are entitled to Insurance Cover under this Agreement.
- 2 The maximum that We will pay over any period of time as a Member is the "Life Time Limit" shown in your Schedule of Insurance.
- 3 The maximum that We will pay for a civil or labour Case is the lowest of: (a) the Maximum Limit shown in your Schedule of Insurance; or (b) the amount or value of your claim multiplied by the Claim Value Multiplier (CVM) shown in your Schedule of Insurance.
- 4 The maximum that We will pay for Covered criminal cases: (a) for a single criminal Case, We will pay up to the Maximum Limit; (b) for different criminal cases over any period of time as a Member, We will only pay for the Maximum Number of Offences shown in your Schedule of Insurance.
- 5 The Maximum Limit for the Legal Expenses Accidental Death benefit is as shown in your Schedule of Insurance.
- 6 The Maximum Limit per Case is for the combined total of all expense items under Section 7.

NOTE:

The Claim Value "rule" is to encourage acceptance of reasonable offers to settle. It avoids disproportionate legal expenses when there is a risk of either a very small or no extra reward.

How to Claim

Legal Expenses Accidental Death (LEAD)

The death must be Reported to Us by submitting the LEAD Claim Form, which forms part of this Agreement, within the period after death shown in your Schedule of Insurance. Additional conditions may apply to this benefit; if so, they are shown in your Schedule of Insurance and/or the LEAD Claim Form.

Legal Matters — Three-Step Process

In legal matters, some laws have time limits to start or defend a Case. If you miss a deadline, you may lose your right to sue or defend. You must report a matter to Us as soon as possible. We are not responsible if you lose your rights because you did not report a matter in time. You can report a matter on the 24-hour Infinity LegalLine on 0861 4 LEGAL, at any Branch, or by email to legal@infinitylegal.co.za.

Step 1 — Report the Matter

If your issue is a labour or civil matter (not criminal), Our legal counsellors will try to resolve it on a reasonable basis. If it is Covered and We decide that We cannot resolve it, or that it is complicated or requires immediate action, or it is a criminal matter, We will refer you to a Network legal advisor, or you may consult your own legal advisor.

Step 2 — Submit the Official Claim Form

If you have chosen a Network legal advisor, he or she will submit Our Official Claim Form (OCF) to Us on your behalf. If you choose another legal advisor, you or your legal advisor must submit the OCF to Us within 7 days of consulting with that legal advisor. We cannot process your claim for Insurance Cover unless We have received the OCF. The OCF is available at any Branch, on the Member Portal at portal.infinitylegal.co.za, or on request.

PLEASE NOTE:

Once We have received the OCF, and before We can decide whether your matter qualifies for Insurance Cover, We may request more information from you or your legal advisor. If it qualifies, We will issue a written Confirmation of Cover to your legal advisor. We will not pay legal expenses incurred before We have issued a written Confirmation of Cover, nor while you are not a Paid-Up Member.

Step 3 — First Option: Network Legal Advisor

If you elect to choose a Network legal advisor, We have information about who specialises in particular types of cases. You can request that information from Us. Network legal advisors have agreed to charge according to Our Tariffs and to assist you to comply with your obligations under this Agreement. Your Network legal advisor will deal directly with Us in connection with your Insurance claim, and there is no risk of being charged above the Tariffs (which may happen under the Second Option).

Step 3 — Second Option: Non-Network Legal Advisor

If you have chosen a legal advisor who is not a Network legal advisor, you must provide Us with an Official Claim Form (if We have not received it yet) within 7 days of consulting with that legal advisor. Please be aware that the legal advisor: may not be prepared to charge at Our Tariffs; or may not agree to assist you to comply with Our reasonable requests for relevant information. It is in your own interests to clarify these two points with your legal advisor.

If you or your legal advisor do not provide Us with information We reasonably need to process your Insurance claim, We will not pay any of your legal expenses. If your legal advisor agrees to co-operate but does not agree to charge at Our Tariffs, We will adjust the legal advisor's total charges to Our Tariffs and pay that amount. You will then be personally responsible to pay the shortfall to your legal advisor out of your own pocket.

SECTION 12

Premiums, Information Exchange, Communication and Leniency

1. Payment of Premiums

- a The monthly premium is due on the 1st day of every month, even though We may collect it at any time up to the end of a month.
- b You must make sure that premiums are paid, even if someone else pays them on your behalf.
- c If a debit order deduction is not successful for whatever reason on the premium due date, resulting in your Membership going into arrears, We may do a double premium deduction from your nominated bank account on the next premium due date.
- d If you pay by debit or stop order: (i) We do not pay the collection costs and any unusual additional fees or charges by your bank; (ii) if you want Us to change or cancel your debit or stop order arrangement, you must contact Us at least 30 days before the existing collection date.

2. Information Exchange, Confidentiality and POPIA

The protection of your personal information is fundamental to Infinity Legal SA. We process all personal information in accordance with the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (POPIA), the General Data Protection Regulation principles where applicable, and all other applicable South African privacy and data protection legislation. - a You agree to provide your personal information to gain access to Our products and services and to allow Us to administer your Insurance product and/or to advance your Case.
- b You agree that We can provide any information (including personal information) to your legal advisor or applicable third party if it is needed to handle your Case, or if a law or Court requires Us to do so.
- c You agree that your legal advisor or any other person who has your information can provide Us with any information (including personal information) which relates to your Insurance product or Case if it is needed.
- d In accordance with POPIA, you are entitled to: (i) request the details of your personal information that We hold in Our records; (ii) request the details about the recipients of your personal information; and (iii) request the amendment or deletion of your personal information, subject to the record-keeping requirements of the Short-Term Insurance Act and other applicable legislation.

3. Communicating With You

- a We will send all general communications to the Main Member's contact details on record.
- b We may send any document or communication that is part of, or that We issue in terms of, the Agreement by mail, email, SMS, website, post, WhatsApp or fax.
- c If you change your contact details, you must please let Us know. We will send you an acknowledgement within 10 business days. Please let Us know if you do not receive it.

- d If any Member communicates with Us about his or her Insurance claim, We will respond to that Member.

4. Leniency

- a If you do not comply with a term of this Agreement, We may overlook it. If We do, even if it is over a long period of time, it does not mean that We have to continue to be lenient.
- b We retain Our rights to enforce any term of the Agreement at any time.

SECTION 13

Premium Changes, Change of Terms and Cancellation

1. Premium Increase

The monthly premium will increase every year on the anniversary date of when you first joined Infinity Legal SA.

2. Changing the Terms or Increasing the Premium

- a We may change any term of the Agreement on 31 days' written notice to you. If We do, it will apply only to Relevant Events that arise after the change. It will not affect Our existing obligations to you under the previous terms for Relevant Events that arose before the change.
- b When We change a term or increase the premium, you accept that We can notify you in any reasonable manner at Our discretion.
- c An increase or change of term will be deemed effective from the date mentioned in the notice.
- d If you do not accept the increase or the change of term, and you cancel your Membership within 31 days of the increase or change of term, We will refund premiums received after the increase or change.

3. Unauthorised Changes

None of Our employees may give any undertaking that deviates from the terms of the Agreement, except for a duly authorised ex-gratia payment.

4. How Your Membership Can Be Cancelled

- a If you pay by cash, you can simply stop paying the premium. Otherwise, you can ask your bank or employer to cancel your direct debit or stop order deduction, or you can request Us to instruct your bank or employer to cancel it.
- b We can cancel your Membership without notice to you, if We do not receive a premium by 24h00 on the last day of the month in which it is due (a 31-day grace period).
- c If We don't cancel, you agree that We may collect the number of unpaid premiums shown in your Schedule of Insurance. (i) If We collect unpaid premiums, you will be treated as if you paid all premiums on due date. (ii) If We fail to collect unpaid premiums, your Membership will be cancelled with effect from the 1st of the 1st month that the premium was not collected. (iii) If We have cancelled as above, and collect or receive a premium at any time after that, it amounts to entering into a new Agreement.
- d We can cancel your Membership on 31 days' notice to you, for any other reason at Our discretion. If We inadvertently collect or receive a premium after such a cancellation, it does not amount to entering into a new Agreement and We will refund that premium.
- e If your Membership is cancelled for any reason, except if it is in terms of Section 8(5), it will not affect Our obligations to pay your legal expenses up to the finalisation of a Case in respect of matters that qualify and that you Reported to Us before "The Maximum Period after Cancellation to Report a Claim" referred to in your Schedule of Insurance.

- f We have no obligation to accept you as a Member again at any time after your Membership has been cancelled for any reason.

SECTION 14

Disputes and Complaints

- 1 If We decide that a claim by you does not qualify for any payment, or only qualifies for payment of a portion of your legal expenses, We will inform you, together with Our reasons, within 10 days after being placed in possession of all the information We have reasonably requested. You then have 90 days from the date We inform you to let Us know in writing if you object and do not agree with it.
- 2 We will reconsider the matter and let you know Our decision within 10 days of receiving your written objection. If We still decide not to pay what you claim and Our decision: (a) is based on the fact that you did not pay a Premium due, or on the fact that the Relevant Event occurred before the end of the Waiting Period, Our decision is final; (b) is based on the fact that the Maximum Limit of indemnity was paid, Our decision is final; (c) is based on any other reason or fact relating to the matter under consideration, and you request it in writing, We will pay an Independent Referee nominated by Us to review it. He or she will review Our decision and give Us a recommendation.
- 3 We do not have to follow the recommendation of the External Referee, but it will be carefully considered. We will inform you of the Referee's recommendation and of Our final decision within 15 days after We receive the recommendation.
- 4 Nothing in this Agreement prevents you from starting a Case against Us at your own cost. However, you must do so within 365 days of the date on which We first informed you of any decision concerning this Agreement that you do not agree with. You lose your rights to take action against Us after the 365-day period.

"Independent External Referee" means a legal advisor who is not on Our Network and who has a minimum of seven years' post-qualification legal experience.

NOTE:

Should you wish to lodge a complaint about Our services, you may do so in writing to the Infinity Legal SA Compliance Officer at complaints@infinitylegal.co.za. If your complaint is not resolved to your satisfaction, you may approach the Financial Sector Conduct Authority (FSCA) or the Ombud for Financial Services Providers (FAIS Ombud) in accordance with the Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act 37 of 2002.
